Coal Miners Rid a Western Camp of Chinese.

SEVEN KILLED AND MANY HURT.

Mrs Grant Visits her Husband's Tomb—The Knights of Labor and the Farmers Fuse in Texas—Fatal Accident on a Race Track

CHEYENNE, Sept 2.—The Leader has the following special from Rock Springs Wyo. The largest coal mines in the entire Union Pacific system are at Rock Springs, 250 miles west of Cheyenne. The company recently imported a large number of Chinese to take the place of white miners. This afternoon the entire force of white miners, about 150 strong, organized, and armed with shot guns, marched to Chinatown. After firing a volley into the air they reloaded and ordered the Chinamen to leave. The order was obeyed at once, the Chinamen fleeing to the hills like a drove of sheep, closely pursued by the miners, who fired several volleys after the fugitives with fatal effect. The Chinese quarters were then set on fire and thirty nine houses owned by the company destroyed with their contents. The miners next visited various mines in the camp, unearthed all the Chinamen at work there and told them to fly for their lives. Of 400 Chinamen here this morning, not one remains. All are in the adjacent hills heading for Green River, fourteen miles west. Seven were killed outright by shots fired by the miners and many were wounded. It is said that several feeble and helpless from disease perished in the flames.

Sheriff Young arrived from Green River on a special train this evening with a posse of deputies, but too late to prevent the mob from carrying out their plans. The miners quietly dispersed [illegible] the day [illegible] is quiet now.

[illegible] FROM THE TIMES.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—The Times is indignant over the latest instance of democratic reform as illustrated in the following: George B. Bacon has been for fifteen years in the customs service of this city. He was appointed through the influence of Gen Grant and is a grandnephew of [illegible]. He won the rank of lieutenant commander in the war [illegible] to go into business after the war [illegible] weigher for the Brooklyn district. The [illegible] of the weighable goods in port pass [illegible] supervision and for fidelity to duty, promptness and discipline he has no equal in the service. Saturday he was summoned to the collector's office, and was informed by that officer's private secretary that he must immediately resign or be dismissed. He refused to do the former, and was given until yesterday to consider the matter. On inquiry whether there were any charges against him he was told that "it is not a matter of charges," which, adds the Times, "is true enough. It is simply a matter of giving up his place, which unfortunately, is not within the civil service rules, to a politician who will use the large force of laborers under his control for the benefit of Boss McLaughlin. The demand for Bacon's resignation was not renewed as threatened yesterday. If Collector Hedden has not lost his senses it will not be renewed, nor will Bacon be removed. Such act would be regarded with indignation by the mercantile community."

MRS. GRANT AT HER HUSBAND'S TOMB.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—The World thus describes Mrs Grant's visit to her husband's tomb yesterday: The man who had descended from the carriage was recognized by people standing around as Col Fred Grant and the lady who leaned upon his arm as he advanced toward the tomb was rightly presumed to be his mother. The crowd separated and arranged themselves on either side of the walk to allow the son and wife of the dead general to proceed between the lines. The sentinel presented arms and the men in the crowd raised their hats and stood with bowed heads while Mrs Grant passed. When Mrs Grant arrived at the tomb she released her arm from that of her son and thrust aside her veil. Then taking hold of the iron grating she stood for a moment gazing at the casket containing the remains of her husband while Col Grant remained by her side hat in hand. Mrs Grant's form soon began to tremble nervously. This was noticed by her son, who gently put his arm around her waist and drew her from the place and toward the carriage in which they had come. Some of the ladies present were affected to tears as Mrs Grant [illegible]

NEW YORK LABOR ASSEMBLY.

ROME, N. Y., Sept 2.—The state labor assembly in session here to-day listened to reports on various topics chiefly of a local nature and passed resolutions boycotting certain firms in Troy and Albany, calling on the state legislature to regulate elevator charges of Buffalo and New York, asking the public to smoke only cigars having the international blue label and recommending the formation of a state central labor organization. The committee on records reported at length on the course of the governor and members of the legislature in regard to bills affecting the laboring classes and closed with recommendations as to the position which workingmen should assume toward them based upon what their respective courses were found to be. Governor Hill was found "entitled to the thanks of organized labor."

STRANGE DISEASE IN WEST VIRGINIA.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept 2.—A great deal of excitement prevails in Clay county, this state, over a malignant form of disease which cannot be explained by local physicians. Every hour brings news of another death. The malady is thought to be flux, but it is a more fatal disorder with symptoms similar to cholera. In the family of [illegible] Sizemore four sons died within four hours and others of the family are sick with the disease. It is mostly confined to children who are attacked with sickness and die in a very short time, being paralyzed with pain. The Sycamore creek region where the disease prevails is sparsely populated with a hardy class of mountaineers. The disease seems to be of the same nature as that which prevailed in southwest Virginia and the adjoining part of Kentucky last year.

THE BARTHOLDI STATUE.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—Gen Stone's report of expenditures on the Bartholdi pedestal is still severely criticised. A Post writer says: "According to Stone's report the work has cost about $60,000 more than ought to have been the case. The admitted cost so far, including the money which must be paid to the contractors when the pedestal is finished, has been $7[illegible]. Gen. Stone's salary for two years and four months is $14,000, which is to be added. The executive committee has received about $200,000, so that the completion of the pedestal proper will find the committee about $10,000 in debt, with the important costly work of putting up the statue before them."

AN OREGONIAN'S VIEWS.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—J. L. Montgomery, of Oregon, who built the Willamette valley narrow gauge road, said yesterday about the business prospects in Oregon: "We are beginning to feel the effects of our wonderful increase in wheat production. We shipped out last year 2[illegible]000 tons of wheat, or its product in flour. This year we will have 450,000 tons. This is equivalent to 15,000,000 or 16,000,000 bushels from a population of only 250,000. Oregon's agricultural prosperity grows with such rapidity that the inhabitants scarcely comprehend it."

THE OREGON EXHIBIT AT IOWA.

DES MOINES, Sept 2.—The Oregon car is at the Mahaska fair grounds and is the greatest attraction in the midst of many. A constant stream of farmers passed through it from early morning until dark. It is a great revelation to Iowa people and a wonderful success for Oregon. Mr R. W. Allen has popularized Oregon here greatly in his business like way of showing the exhibit. We are glad Oregon is here by sample.

THE MASONIC RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

BALTIMORE, Sept 2.—The national convention of the Masonic lodge of relief to-day elected the following officers: President, Martin Collins of St. Louis; vice presidents, J. R. Tope of New York and J. Mitchell, of Montreal; secretary, Dr. D. F. [illegible] of Baltimore; treasurer, Wm Delamater of New York; advisory board, W. B. Isaacs of Virginia, Isaac Hirsch of South Carolina and [illegible] of Wisconsin. St. Louis was selected as the next place of meeting.

THE SWATARA'S RICH CARGO.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept 2.—The work of loading the Swatara with silver coin from the mint began yesterday. Floats are employed in the transfer of the silver, which is placed on wagons at the mint vaults. The Swatara brought 400 wooden boxes strapped with iron. A guard of marines accompanies the wagons to the vessel where the silver is deposited in the magazine. It is proposed that the Swatara and the [illegible] take between $11,000,000 and $12,000,000 of the $[illegible] in the mint.

THE PRESIDENT.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Sept 2.—President Cleveland was tendered a reception here last evening and there was a display of fireworks in his honor. He visited the Adirondacks cottage this morning with Dr Ward and both left at 11 o'clock to return to Saranac Lake. The weather is stormy.

SMALLPOX AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—A child at 1[illegible] street was discovered to-day suffering with a virulent case of smallpox. Part of the building is used as [illegible] and there are fears that the infection will spread.

EX-SENATOR GWIN'S CONDITION.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—The condition of ex-Senator Gwin of California is reported to-day unchanged. His physician says he is out of danger, and are keeping him as quiet as possible.

MANNING VISITS TILDEN.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—Secretary of the Treasury Daniel J. Manning arrived in Yonkers this morning on the 10:56 train from Albany. Ex-Governor Tilden's carriage was at the depot to meet him, and he was at once driven to Greystone. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon he was driven to the Yonkers depot again and took the train for his city. It was said that the Greystone visit has no political significance.

CHOLERA IN ITALY.

WASHINGTON, Sept 2.—The secretary of state has received a telegram from Consul General Wood, reporting that there have been four deaths from cholera at a place nine miles from Naples and five at a place about fifty miles north of Naples.

THE TEXAS LABOR TROUBLES.

The Knights of Labor and the Farmers' Union Consolidate.

GALVESTON, Tex., Sept 2.—News from Dallas says the Knights of Labor to-day perfected organization of a grand assembly by electing a full set of officers, with Henry Golden of Galveston as master workman. It became known during the day that the assembly was waited upon by a committee of five from the farmers union headed by President Dunlap with a proposition to fuse with the latter, which was accepted. A comparison of notes showed that the Knights of Labor only organized in Texas in last March have since then increased their membership to almost 10,000 while the Farmers union had a membership of 8,000 in Texas with a prospect of controlling 80 per cent of the farmers in six years. The harmony existing between agriculture and labor is said to have been proved by a proposition from the farmers to back the Knights of Labor with as much as $10,000 a week to secure success of conduct of the strike.

Fusion rests on the understanding that parties and politicians are to be ignored in a united effort to secure labor and production by the subordination of corporations and destruction of syndicates, rings, [illegible] and other ends to the accumulation of great wealth. All classes are admissible to [illegible] except bankers, lawyers, saloon keepers [illegible] and professional politicians.

[illegible] promote strikes [illegible] to prevent them by arbitration [illegible] committee with [illegible] powers [illegible] granted. Where the work of the arbitrators appointed from opposite interests is not satisfactory, disinterested parties are to be called in whose [illegible] to be accepted, but should a corporation refuse their consent to arbitrate, then strikes and boycotts may be instituted as a last resort.

Leading members of the organization say there will be no fusion with either the prohibitionists or anti-prohibitionists, and the rapid growth of the order precludes probability of coalition with any of the existing great parties.

THE KNIGHTS AND THE [illegible]

GALVESTON, Sept 2.—A brief session of the committee of the Knights of Labor and the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad company was held to-night. It adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock, when a treaty will be finally consummated. It is understood that the Knights have gained every point and those still remaining disputed are not essentially material to the issue.

SPORTING NOTES.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT BRIGHTON BEACH.

BRIGHTON BEACH, Sept 2.—The track was good and there was more than average attendance, but the pleasures of the day were completely marred by a chapter of terrible accidents, by which one of the most promising of young jockeys, Moran, was instantly killed, and several other riders narrowly escaped with their lives. The second race was started with thirty one horses, although twenty two owners had sent in an application to have their horses [illegible]. Thirty one is the number was too great and the track too narrow to give their mounts [illegible] and as was stated. They were started [illegible] at a moment [illegible] the horses [illegible] and a [illegible] in a cloud of dust, in which those outside the front [illegible] where they were all [illegible] to the half mile post. Moran, who was riding [illegible] and as well as could have been with the [illegible], was on the [illegible] third place having [illegible] Howell a little in front, and closely followed by Garrison on Blizzard and [illegible] on Bonnie [illegible]. Moran was seen suddenly to pitch high in the air and was quickly followed by the [illegible] horses [illegible] Moran's neck was broken and death was instant. [illegible] The other riders, Garrison and [illegible], are all right.

In the third race another accident occurred which in one case may prove fatal. Williamson escaped with a few bruises.

THE COMING YACHT RACE.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—The Sun prints the news of an expected [illegible] of the San Francisco yacht club on the superiority of the sloop over the cutter as shown in past contests. He believes the Puritan will win the coming race. It is stated that everything in the shape of excursion steamer or tug boat has been chartered to accompany the contesting boats and the demand is likely to be even more urgent before the end of the week. Owners of all vessels will no doubt command their own terms. Hotels are calculating that the Boston yacht club and other eastern people especially interested in the race will fill their houses to overflowing.

RAILROAD NOTES.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RUMORS.

ST PAUL, Sept 2.—Much discussion is caused in local railway circles by a report that there is a scheme on foot in New York to form a combination between the Northern Pacific and the Rock Island, Milwaukee & St Paul and Omaha roads, somewhat on the order of the old tripartite agreement between the Union Pacific and its eastern connections at Omaha. In local offices of the Northern Pacific decided opposition is expressed to any such combination on the ground that it would force the road to carry all the east bound freight through to St Paul, but also make it necessary to go to Chicago to [illegible] for west bound traffic.

Among the rumors current yesterday regarding the Northern Pacific was one of big finds of anthracite coal along the line of the road. Investigation partly gave corroboration to the rumor. Large finds of anthracite coal have been made, but unfortunately the mines are located where the company cannot get access to them with any great advantage [illegible]. The mines are located in the Cowlitz pass of the Cascades and they are inaccessible to the company because it is [illegible] impossible to run the Pacific division into the [illegible] part of the mountains [illegible].

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL POOL TROUBLES.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—Although representatives of trunk lines deny that east bound freight are in a pretty demoralized condition, the recent break has caused an uncertainty among shippers as to whether rates will not go still lower. There is [illegible] trouble ahead in the Transcontinental pool. It has been known some time that the Southern Pacific company is dissatisfied with the present awarding of percentages. The subject of discussion at the meeting to be held at St. Paul on the 10th inst. is the demand of the Southern Pacific for a higher percentage on the ground that they do fully two-thirds of the freight business between New York and San Francisco. A freight agent said this morning: "It is a shame that we should become involved in freight trouble just as business begins to pick up. Freight to San Francisco has been steadily increasing for the past two months and heavy fall goods shipments are commencing to come in. Shippers who held back owing to recent difficulties have come in with renewed confidence while here we are on the point of another row which threatens to swamp all others."

The Silver Question Attracts Attention in London.

FISH FOR AMERICAN WATERS

Sir Henry Drummond Wolff's Mission to Turkey—The Steamship Hanoverian Wrecked near Cape Race—Old World Notes

LONDON, Sept 2.—The silver question is assuming great interest in financial and political circles here. Alexander Delmar and Martin Frewen, Lord Randolph Churchill's son-in-law, have been interviewed on both sides of the question. The former is of the opinion that deluge and disaster are threatened in America because silver is likely to be demonetized. The latter denies this likelihood and says: "No question of the day is of the same importance to England as the question of the future of silver. We in England require to know how [illegible] action congress will take on this issue. A fall of one quarter pence in the price of silver per ounce has absolutely dislocated our commercial relations with all those nations that use silver. What then might not be the effect of the demonetization of silver by a country of the commercial importance of the United States. Surely the prospect of a sale of $20,000,000 in bullion value, and the cessation of all demand for silver by the United States must suggest that such a financial disaster as this the age has not witnessed [illegible] an immense [illegible] that would lead to widespread [illegible] of interests which England, the great creditor nation, would be first to feel. The question [illegible] should [illegible] the British government [illegible] America knows that [illegible] for an exclusive gold basis control of the exchange [illegible] to India. ARREST OF MRS. JARRETT.

LONDON, Sept 2.—Mrs Jarrett was taken into custody this morning on a charge of abducting the Armstrong girl who was [illegible] of the Pall Mall Gazette revelations. General Booth of the Salvation Army surrendered Mrs Jarrett to the authorities. After holding several conferences with them during the past few days the police finally threatened to have a warrant issued for General Booth's arrest on a charge of obstructing the law by concealing Mrs. Jarrett. This frightened him and he immediately produced the woman. Mrs. Jarrett walked to the police station with a sister of the Salvation Army and in accordance with an arrangement made with the superintendent of police, that officer was in waiting at the door of the station house and took her into custody. Mrs. Jarrett demurely proceeded to a cell and was locked up. Later in the day she was taken to Bow street police court, where she was charged with having indecently assaulted the Armstrong girl by administering a noxious drug to her, with feloniously detaining her and also with conspiring with Mr. Stead of the Pall Mall Gazette, and others to commit these offences. Mr. Poland, solicitor for the treasury, appeared for the prosecution. He declared that Mrs. Jarrett had obtained the girl by pleading that she required her for housework and that she was a woman of respectability. The prisoner was then remanded until Monday next, bail being refused. A summons has been granted for complicity in the case against Mr. Stead, Gen. Booth and others.

Lord [illegible] [illegible] Mr. [illegible] has charge of the fish during the voyage. Considering the interest which the American government has evinced in the fish culture of this country and the valuable assistance received by this presentation to England of a variety of species of salmon suitable for acclimatization the National Fish Culture association has performed a [illegible].

STEAMSHIP WRECKED.

The Hanoverian Goes Ashore near Cape Race and is a Total Wreck.

ST. JOHN'S, Sept 2.—The Allan line steamship Hanoverian, from [illegible] to [illegible], went ashore [illegible] Portugal cove, fourteen miles north by west of Cape Race. The steamer Nimrod was dispatched this afternoon to rescue the passengers and crew, who are thought to be safe.

A gale of wind and a dense fog prevented the steamer Nimrod from going to the scene of the wreck. The Hanoverian left Halifax at noon on Monday with fifty-seven passengers and her normal crew. She experienced fine weather until nearing St. Pierre island, when an impenetrable fog was encountered and by false steering, error of the compass or neglect to make soundings the steamer was driven at high speed into Portugal cove, seven miles east of Trepassey, where she now lies, a total wreck. She passed over a number of hidden rocks which ripped her bottom almost her whole length. The main hold filled with water and it is not probable that any cargo will be saved. The passengers are now in route to Trepassey where they can receive accommodations and comfort until the [illegible] has been [illegible] to convey them to St. John's. Other steamers [illegible] to render assistance. A New York steamer of the Red Cross line has been [illegible] Cape Race to proceed to the scene of the disaster. Lacy and family, William Edward Kent and family and Dora Rostrop, Baltimore, Md, all for Europe.

Seventy one adults and twenty children were aboard, of whom the agents here do not know the names, but are to be sent from Halifax.

The cargo of the Hanoverian was 7,443 bushels of grain, 18 barrels of flour, 1550 sacks of flour, 69 hogsheads Kentucky tobacco, 25 hogsheads Virginia tobacco, 11 cases Virginia tobacco, 500 barrels pork, 400 sacks oil cake, 200 barrels rosin, 250 bags bark and 4000 cases canned beef.

The Silver Policy of Treasurer Jordan Explained—The Sharon Divorce Case—News from the North—The Ancon

WASHINGTON, Sept 2.—Secretary Lamar has directed Assistant Secretary Jenks to announce that on the 21st of October he will sit with him to hear argument in the Seamans case arising from the Olympia, Washington territory, land district. This case is one of great importance to every land grant railroad in the country. Seamans is a pre-emptor on a piece of land which in the general route maps of the Northern Pacific road falls in an odd numbered section, and would therefore belong to the company's grant, but the railroad company subsequent to Seamans' entry, filed plats of its actual route, which would not include it. The question to be settled is whether the railroad company's rights attach to the grant at the time of filing the general route map or when the actual definite route is platted and plats filed. The Northern Pacific attorneys and attorneys for Seamans will argue the case, but Mr. Lamar wishes a broadcast advertisement of his invitation to all other attorneys interested in the question to be present on the 21st of October and offer any argument on the case.

WILL HEAR ORAL ARGUMENT.

WASHINGTON, Sept 2.—The acting secretary of the interior will hear oral argument in the case of the Northern Pacific railroad company against [illegible] at the office of the assistant attorney general of the interior department on Wednesday, October 21. The questions at issue are whether the right of said company under its grant by act of congress approved July 2, 1864, attached to odd numbered sections of public land upon filing its map of general route in the land office, or does it attach at the date of filing the map of definite location. Also, of what effect did the withdrawal of the map of the general route of the amended branch line of the road have on the status of said tracts. In view of the important questions involved in the case and also the fact that many cases now pending will be governed by the principles decided therein, other attorneys interested in similar cases involving the rights of settlers and said company, or other companies, are invited to be present, and will be allowed to express their views either orally or in writing, upon the question to be determined.

A STATEMENT BY JORDAN.

WASHINGTON, Sept 2.—Treasurer Jordan said to-day that the policy adopted by the treasury department to secure better circulation of silver coin is meeting with gratifying success. During the month of August just ended there was paid out from the different sub-treasuries $1,667,431 in standard dollars and $1,4[illegible]902 in fractional silver coin, which amounts were largely in excess of the issue of silver during the corresponding month last year. Jordan says the withdrawal of one and two dollar notes from circulation was made necessary by the rapid accumulation of silver in the sub-treasuries. It was expected in this way to create a demand for silver coin. That the plan was successful is shown by the large output of silver during the past month. So far no formal complaints or protests against the withdrawal of one and two dollar notes have been made. Applications have, however, been received for large quantities of small notes. In each case the answer has simply been made that the issue of these notes has been suspended for the present. Treasury officials express themselves as much encouraged by the present state of finances and predict an improvement in the general business of the country.

THE AGRICULTURAL CHEMISTS.

WASHINGTON, Sept 2.—The annual convention of the Official Agricultural Chemists Association closed its session at the agricultural department to-day. The committee on nitrogen determination made a report on [illegible] Determination was read and discussed and a method for determining potash in fertilizers was agreed upon. A method for determining phosphoric acid was also adopted, and it was made obligatory on members to use these methods in their official analysis. A committee on control of fertilizer law was appointed and officers were elected as follows: President, Prof. H. F. Wiley, of Washington; Dr. C. W. Dabney of North Carolina, vice president; Clifford Richardson of Washington, secretary and treasurer. A resolution of thanks to the commissioner of agriculture was passed. The convention discussed the proposition of enlarging the scope of the association and adjourned to meet in Washington next September.

NO MORE BOND CALLS.

NEW YORK, Sept 2.—A Washington special to the Commercial says: There are now upward of $200,000,000 in cash held in the treasury. Under a republican administration the policy since the resumption of specie payments has been to hold a reserve of only 40 per cent of the outstanding legal tender notes, which would be about $138,000,000, and just as fast as money accumulated above this reserve calls for bonds were issued and interest on the debt stopped. Treasurer Jordan gives as a reason why he makes no bond calls that he is afraid gold would be asked for and drawn from the treasury for payment of such called bonds, and he prefers to let the revenues accumulate in the treasury vaults until congress shall decide whether or not it will do away with the present silver which he considers a dangerous element in the finances of the country. He thinks the saving which might be made by [illegible] more than offset by the advantages of retaining gold in the treasury.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, Sept 2.—Commissioner Atkins, of the Indian bureau, has received advices from the agent at the Southern Ute agency, Colorado, contradicting published statements that Indians have assumed a hostile attitude. Everything is quiet at the agency and no trouble is apprehended.

PORTLAND, THURSDAY SEPT 3 1885

THE STATE FAIR

If good weather shall prevail the state fair this year will be more attractive than it ever was before. We have had an early harvest and crops will have been cared for fully so that nobody will be kept at home as hitherto by the necessity of finishing harvest work. Reduced rates on the railroads will enable all who can spare anything for expenses to attend. It is not easy to overestimate the benefits to be derived from change of scene and from a week's respite from the humdrum of every-day life.

From several causes the state fair has been through several years almost a total failure, and it was constantly getting worse. The society was burdened with a big debt, which steadily accumulated. For several years the fairs fell upon seasons of bad weather. The attendance was small, funds failed and premiums could not be paid. The low ebb which the affairs of the society had reached was not particularly the fault of anybody, though doubtless the management in many particulars might have been better. It got into debt through the necessity of making improvements and through a succession of bad seasons, and once in there was no way out, without extraneous aid.

This aid the legislature at the last session consented to give. The act also marked out a system of thorough reorganization, which has been carried out. Every effort is being made to render the coming fair the most satisfactory and successful one the state has ever seen. Every facility will be extended to exhibitors in all lines, with full assurance that all premiums will be paid.

Two years ago it was thought probable that these fairs would be abandoned. But the state came forward with assistance out of its treasury, and now, since the fairs are to be continued, under more hopeful conditions, the people should respond with every effort that can be rendered to make them alike creditable and useful to the state. If the coming fair be favored with good weather there will pretty certainly be the largest attendance ever seen.

THE OREGON WAR DEBT

A reader of THE OREGONIAN calls in question the statement made yesterday as to the appropriation for paying the Oregon war debt of 1855–6. That appropriation he thinks, was made by a democratic congress before Senator Baker took his seat.

He mistakes. The bill for the appropriation was passed at the second session of the Thirty-sixth congress, which began on the first Monday of December 1860. Baker was elected in September 1860 for part of a term only. Delazon Smith's term as senator had expired March 4 1859, and as the effort to elect a successor that year had failed, Oregon had but one senator during the first session of the Thirty-sixth congress. Baker, when elected, had less than four and a half years to serve, and took his seat immediately upon the assembling of congress, after his election. Nesmith, who was elected at the same time, did not take his seat till the expiration of Lane's term in the following March.

The house of representatives was republican and Pennington was speaker. The senate also was republican and it was made almost entirely so by the withdrawal of the southern senators, which took place during December and January. In pursuance of the principles of the Jeffersonian democracy they abandoned with scorn their seats in the senate of the United States and went south to set to organize a true pro-slavery democratic republic.

It was at this time that the bill to pay the Oregon war debt passed. It was approved by President Buchanan March 2, 1861. It appropriated $2,801,000 and, as there was no money in the treasury, (Hendricks couldn't complain about any overfull treasury in those days, after the long period of democratic ascendency) the act authorized the issue of 6 per cent. United States bonds in payment of the claims. So poor was credit of the government that these bonds sold way down in the eighties, some of them lower still. A 3 per cent. United States bond now sells at a premium after twenty four years exclusion of the democratic party from power.

DECREASED CONSUMPTION OF LIQUORS

Is consumption of alcoholic liquors decreasing? The returns through the bureau of internal revenue of spirituous and malt liquors for the year ended June 30, 1885, as compared with those of the next preceding fiscal year would seem to indicate as much.

In 1885 there were distilled [illegible] gallons of spirits; in 1884 there were [illegible] gallons. Here is a difference of 10,[illegible] gallons. In malt liquors there was produced in the year ending last June, 19,180,908 barrels against 18,998,649 the previous year, being an increase of [illegible] barrels. An eastern journal, after an examination of these figures, concludes that, leaving out of the account imported liquors, which may be regarded fairly as having fallen off in the last year and making due allowance for decreased consumption in the arts, it is apparent that there has been a notable decrease in whisky drinking.

This conclusion is confirmed by the number of retail dealers, breweries, etc. returned by the internal revenue department for these two years. In 1884 the retailers of distilled liquors aggregated [illegible]; in 1885 the number was 160,677. This shows a decrease of 3,15[illegible]. On the other hand the retailers of malt liquors increased 1045. The total number of dealers of all classes reported in 1884 was [illegible], against 195,617 in 1885. In the same time the brewery figures were respectively [illegible] and [illegible], a decrease of 78.

The large reduction in the number of retail liquor dealers indicates that the immense decrease in the production of spirits has been owing to less drinking. What proportion may be credited to hard times and what to voluntary temperance cannot of course be stated.

The New York Evening Post (mugwump) commends the action of the republican committee of that state in calling their state convention in advance of the democrats and in the liberality of their invitation to all classes of republicans to join in its deliberations. "We are inclined to think," says the Post, "that the action of the republicans in thus stepping in ahead of the democrats is the shrewdest thing the party has done this year. Coupled with their enlargement of the representation in the convention and their cordial invitation to the independents to rejoin the party, their action shows a wonderful spirit of progress, as commendable as it is politic."

The new High school building is a fine edifice; there is hardly the like of it anywhere; but we don't think Portland will ever do so much in the way of architectural display on a school building again. The next effort to compare with this will doubtless be a city hall. That probably will not be attempted for some years yet, but when it does come along, then look out for the work the architects will get in on the taxpayers.

If to be editor of a paper while one is holding an office is to be an offensive partisan, and the president has decided that it is, then the newly-appointed district attorney of the United States at New York,—Mr. Dorsheimer,—who has just bought the New York Star and has announced that he will be its editor, will soon have an opportunity to learn whether he finds the designation an inconvenience or not.

John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, is reported to have said that it cost $6000 a day to run that paper. This is a "whopper." The cost can not be more than half that sum; but then $3000 a day is a good deal of money. Perhaps, however, Mr. McLean didn't make the statement attributed to him.

A Ohio man claims to have discovered "a new process for making gold." Now, if some man will discover the old process of making it the result will be still more satisfactory.

A "RIGHT ABOUT" POLITICAL MOVEMENT

Rapid transitions are often witnessed in politics. Such a spectacle is now presented in Virginia, where those who have hitherto opposed what is known there as "readjustment" are now attempting to out-readjust the readjusters themselves. They have taken their stand on "state sovereignty" as a defense against the recent decision of the supreme court of the United States on the Virginia debt, and affect to think the original readjusters whom they long denounced as the most dishonest and infamous of repudiators, as altogether too spiritless now in their support of a readjustment, for the requirements of the present time.

Down to a recent period a studied attempt had been made, ever since the so-called readjuster party of Virginia was organized, to make it appear that this party was in favor of partial repudiation, while the democratic party favored full payment of the debt. But the democratic party of Virginia has got past this now and its orators are making the state ring with appeals to "state sovereignty," against the interference of the federal courts in behalf of the creditors of the state.

The position of Mahone and his friends, on which the readjuster party was organized, was this, viz: First—Find out the exact amount of the debt of Virginia. Second—Offer the holders of the old state bonds new bonds on the basis of two for three, without compelling them to take the new issue by any threat of repudiating the whole. Third—Meet fully and promptly the obligations assumed in the issuance of new bonds.

The throwing off of one-third the readjusters contended was not repudiation. It was simply recognition of the fact that the debt which stood against the undivided state of Virginia, was a lien upon the entire state, and when one-third of it was set off by itself as West Virginia the remaining two-thirds of the state was holden for only that portion of the debt. In taking this position the readjusters only accepted the doctrine on the subject held from the first by the democrats except as it was desired to use the magnitude of the debt as an excuse for not paying anything.

The doctrine that partition of the state divided the burden of the debt conforms to the law of realty. A body of land on which a mortgage rests may be divided and subdivided without freeing any part of it from the lien or saddling it all on any portion of it. The honesty of the readjustment made is defended on the ground that debt follows territory. Admit this principle and no room for complaint remains, and the real repudiators are the citizens of West Virginia, who stoutly refuse to so much as entertain the idea of assuming any part of the debt incurred by Virginia when West Virginia constituted about one-third of the Old Dominion.

Last year, for the first time, the democrats of Virginia accepted this system of readjustment against which they had hitherto vehemently contended. As they confessed themselves whipped out on that issue, there was no longer any need of a readjuster party, and that organization therefore abandoned its name and merged itself into the republican party.

But this proved not to be the end of it. The whole question is under discussion again throughout Virginia, and with more heat than ever. The decision of the supreme court of the United States in the Virginia tax cases last March, has brought the subject to the front as the principal question of this year's political contest. Orators are talking by the hour upon it, and the newspapers are printing editorials on the subject from two columns to five columns long. The original readjusters are proposing simply to stand by the readjustment as made. The democrats spend most of their effort in invocations to the sovereignty of the state and in windy defiance of what they call the [illegible] of the federal courts, by which the sovereignty of the state is assailed.

They say too that the decision of the court violates the constitution of the United States. Under the eleventh amendment of the constitution it is expressly provided that "the judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity begun or prosecuted against any one of the United States by citizens of another state." This amendment was proposed by the third congress of the United States in 1794 and was declared ratified in 1798. It is now claimed that, under this amendment, the United States has no power to compel a state to perform its obligations, nor to give through its courts redress to any citizen if a state attempts to violate the constitutional provision forbidding any enactment to impair the obligation of contracts. The constitution it is claimed is only morally binding in this prohibition. The state ought not to impair the obligation of contracts. But the United States has neither power nor the moral right to exercise any coercion through the action of its courts. It has no power to defend any citizen who may be wronged by an unjust act of a state.

In Virginia, therefore, they have a constitutional question up for debate, and it is on constitutional exposition that the southern politician always comes out strong. During the war of the rebellion Mr. Jefferson Davis many times called the attention of mankind to the fact that "the Washington government" was carrying on the war in violation of the constitution from which alone it derived its powers. He was pained and shocked by such infidelity to the sacred instrument, and there was hardly a month in which he did not record a patriotic protest against it.

What the supreme court decided was this, namely that a state has no constitutional power to enact any law impairing the obligation of contracts; that such a pretended enactment is not valid, and cannot be held by any official or other person to warrant him in any act to enforce it against a citizen who may be wronged thereby. The restraint of the eleventh amendment was avoided on the ground that a suit against a state officer is not, within the meaning of the amendment, a suit against the state. This is in harmony with the previous decision (Osborn vs. Bank of the United States, 9 Wheaton, 738) that although a state is not liable to be sued, yet an injunction will lie against its agents to restrain the execution of an unconstitutional law. The principal argument for Virginia before the court on behalf of the readjuster settlement was made by Attorney General Garland. He argued that the United States had no power in the matter, because it could not appoint a receiver for a state, and turning to Senator Evarts and other counsel for the creditors, he said: "You may get your judgment, but you cannot seize Virginia's property and sell it at public auction to pay your debt." On these points and a hundred more Virginia is now ringing with a most strepent oratory. It reminds one very much of the prolonged debate years ago when there was a prodigious amount of learned hair-splitting on another phase of state sovereignty which finally dropped out of sight under the apple tree at Appomattox.

The character of a turn-coat and renegade does not commend itself to any party. A man named Dowling, an officeholder at Toledo, Ohio, who has held on under Grant, Hayes and Arthur and hopes still to hold on under Cleveland has announced his withdrawal from the republican party, giving as the reason that he sees it is the party of sectionalism. Democratic papers here and there have been praising Dowling. But the Cleveland Plain Dealer, democratic organ of northern Ohio, gives him this benefit:

[illegible] the only [illegible] post[illegible] a Toledo [illegible] of that old democrat down in Maine who was postmaster for many years before [illegible] Mr. Lincoln. The Maine postmaster was told that Old Abe would give him the [illegible] [illegible] wont [illegible] [illegible] suggestion in his mind and [illegible] to his [illegible].

The Plain Dealer intimates that Dowling is despised alike by democrats and republicans of Ohio and no wonder. It is the righteous retribution that overtakes the mercenary apostate.

There is great alarm in California about the movement of mining debris in the rivers. The Call says:

There is not a day's time to be lost in preparing to ward off the impending calamity. The overflow of debris has ceased to be a question of dollars and cents, and become one of the preservation of life and the means to live. Property to the amount of not less than $30,000,000 is threatened, involving not merely pecuniary loss but thousands of beautiful and happy homes. There is no other question before the public at present so urgent in its nature, so vast in its consequences and so difficult of solution. How shall we dispose of the debris now moving down upon us from the mountains so as to preserve both the chain of bays through which the river flows to the ocean and the valley of the Sacramento with its cities and villages and its country homes?

To this the Sacramento Union adds: "We repeat the exclamation: there is not a day's time to be lost. But we amend our contemporary's figures by $100,000,000. Let the people meet in convention next week and take counsel of each other."

We have received from Sterling Hill, photographer at Eugene City, copies of several remarkably fine photographic views of the summit of the mountains known as the Three Sisters. The ascent of these peaks was described in a recent article by T. C. Judkins, published in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. The photographic views fully support Mr. Judkins's fine description.

A paper to be called The Alaskan is to be published at Sitka. It will be devoted exclusively to the development of the material resources of the territory. It will be published weekly at $3 a year. The first number will appear about a month hence. The paper will be printed by an association formed for that purpose, under the name of "The Alaskan Company."

"We affirm," say the democrats of Pennsylvania in their recent platform, "we affirm the president's clear and indisputable right to remove officials who have prostituted the public service for partisan ends." That means every official who voted for Blaine.

Democratic conventions are "indorsing" the president, hoping that he will distribute the offices more rapidly if they give him a little taffy. But the "indorsements" are mild.

All the democratic organs are charging Senator Sherman with "waving the bloody shirt." Of course. But they are not able to controvert his statements all the same.

Postmasters are still being changed at the rate of 200 per day. This now is what the long waiting democratic brother understands "reform" to mean.

GENERAL LAWTON

He Delivers the Address at the Laying of the Corner Stone of Georgia's New Capitol

ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 2.—The corner stone of the new capitol of the state was laid to-day. The feature of the ceremonies was the speech of General Lawton. Following are the salient points: "In the United States the experiment of free government has reached its maturity. We have passed through a second war with England, the war with Mexico and numerous contests with adjacent Indian tribes, but last and greatest of all the war between the states, the severest and mightiest test ever applied to the energies, the resources and the endurance of a great people, and now the capacity of man for self government is no longer an experiment. We postponed the evil day, but it came at last, and the developments of four years of devastating war developed a power in this new American government and every part of it in resources, energy, patriotic endeavor and heroism which caused the whole civilized world to look upon us.

WORTH ALL IT COST

Fellow Georgians, sad and dreary as was those four years of devastating war, and painfully conscious of the intense strain upon our manhood [illegible] state homes which never can be glad and the broken hearts which can never be healed, yet looking to the education and future development of a great people, the lessons taught in those years of struggle, and the equally valuable lessons in the years that have since come and gone, I now venture to assert that the struggle was worth all it cost. [illegible] of the various sections of this country now understand each other better than they ever did before. The North knows that the South [illegible] altogether given to exhibitions of [illegible] [illegible] capable only of [illegible] [illegible] and the world knows how it was judged. The South [illegible] has learned that the North [illegible] [illegible] risk its all [illegible] [illegible] time [illegible].

POLITICAL EFFECT AND RESULT

The political effect and result of the war between the states has been to show conclusively that it is not the intention of a great majority of the people of this country to permit any state to withdraw itself from the Union, and that they have the physical power to prevent it. [illegible] has been settled by the war. [illegible] principle of government has been changed. [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] that great government [illegible] portion of the Union. Since we are no longer required upon to surrender our self respect to do or to defer to our most sacred sensibilities, [illegible] making the claim we are ready and willing to render service to the defence of [illegible] honor to fight her battles, to give every [illegible] of every section his just due. In that sense we know no North, no South, no East, no West, but thank heaven the time is past when any right thinking man of the North thinks we shall not love our own families and neighbors better than the [illegible] our own city better than another, our own state better than any of the thirty eight states. Our friends they know and respect us for it. While we join in [illegible] to the tribute paid the great soldier of the United States recently borne to the tomb in Riverside park with such display and demonstration as Roman emperor never received, yet in our own homes in the tenderest moments of our lives we turn the illustrious sons of the South who sleep in modest graves at Lexington with sorrow and pride which are all our own."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

OH SHE MUST BE A DAISY!—Yesterday Simon Isaacs, a butcher, brought suit in the state circuit court against his wife Catherine Isaacs, asking that the matrimonial bonds which now hold them as one be severed. They were married in this city January [illegible] 1867. The plaintiff alleges that Catherine ever since 1880 has been a habitual drunkard and has treated him with marked cruelty, rendering life burdensome. He specifies that in September, 188[illegible] she beat him, drove him away from bed and home, forced him to live away from home, and that it was unsafe to live with her. He specifies further that on the sixth day of August, 1885, she struck him in the face, kicked him in the stomach, inflicting severe injuries, broke a window in the meat market and to add insult to injury heaped ill[illegible] epithets upon him. [illegible] day of this week she alleges, she repeated this performance with slight variations. Look here, now, Billie Isaacs. You'd better leave town and stay away till Saturday. John Robinson's show will be here to-morrow and the manager is always on the alert for novelties in the animal kingdom. If he reads THE OREGONIAN and the first thing you know he will be [illegible] his cages to lasso you for his menagerie.

TWO YEARS FOR ROBBING A POSTOFFICE.—Yesterday R. W. Cannon pleaded guilty in the United States district court to the charge of robbing the postoffice at Forest Grove and was sentenced by Judge Deady to two years imprisonment in the state penitentiary. He and his companion, young Knight, were arrested about seven months ago charged with the crime and have been in jail ever since. Cannon maintained his innocence until brought into court yesterday morning and made a confession. He stated that previous to the robbery he had been at work in Forest Grove, had been drinking pretty heavily and his money was nearly gone. He met Knight and his friend and took drinks with them. Knight proposed they should go together into the postoffice saying they were sure to find some money. Being considerably under the influence of liquor he went with his companions and broke into and robbed the postoffice of about $150. Cannon is the young man who achieved some notoriety three years ago by shooting State Senator Jacob Voorhees of Marion county

FIRE COMMISSIONERS.—Yesterday the board of fire commissioners had a regular meeting, President Story in the chair. The chief engineer was ordered to buy 1000 feet of Maltese Cross hose for use of the department. Applications of George Coleman and Peter Marriet for positions in the department were referred to the chief engineer. By law No 16 of the Firemen's Relief association which provides for an assessment of $1 on every member of the department on the death of a member to pay funeral expenses, was indefinitely suspended. Hereafter the funeral expenses of a member will be paid from the general fund of the relief association. The resignation of Dave Cam[illegible] foreman of hose company No 2 was accepted. H McCarthy was appointed to fill the vacancy. The resignation of A J Hunter extra man of engine company No 2 was also accepted. Claims to the amount of $2[illegible] 47 were read and ordered paid. This includes a bill of $430 for new hydrants and $89 45 for connecting a cistern at Lownsdale and Morrison streets, and the Portland water company and Hydraulic Elevator company for August

THE MOSCOW BRANCH.—Mr H S Rowe superintendent of the O R & N who has returned from "the front," reports work on the Moscow extension progressing very rapidly. It was expected when work began, that the branch would not be completed under the most favorable circumstances before October 1 but if all goes well trains will be running into Moscow by the 25th of this month. The grading is practically completed and track is being laid with vigor. By the tenth instant the track will have reached Pullman, eighteen miles beyond Colfax. Several Howe truss bridges are to be built between Pullman and Moscow and these will be put up after the road is in operation, trains in the meantime running over false work. The Moscow branch is the first construction work of any consequence ever done by the operating department of which Mr Rowe is the head and more efficient railroading is not on record in this part of the country

STILL ALIVE.—A private telegram received here yesterday from Cinnabar states that John Howard who shot himself last week in Yellowstone park was alive when the stage left Fire Hole basin but with no chance of recovery. From a gentleman familiar with the details of the sad occurrence the following additional facts are learned. Young Howard had been in the park for some time with the surveying party under charge of Capt Kingman, chief engineer of the department of the Platte which Gen Howard commands. Gen Howard and party came into the park a short time ago and camped at the Fire Hole basin where they were met by Capt Kingman's party. With Gen Howard's party was a young lady of Omaha to whom young Howard had been engaged but the engagement was broken off before he started on the survey. He renewed his suit without success. His subsequent action is known

MISS DUBOIS' SUCCESS.—The Milan Corriere [illegible], a journal devoted to literature and art has the following in its issue of July [illegible] concerning a young lady from Portland: "In Miss Belle Dubois we recognize a finished soprano and a sympathetic artiste. She combines the fine quality of a good voice, exactness and faultless intonation and is a thorough musician. Her singing is of a fine school, and her every number was received with great applause. She has indeed proved herself an artiste in every sense of the word and will certainly have a brilliant career, because she has the necessary ability to win a bright future." This news will be gratifying to Miss Dubois' many friends in the city

SUCCESSFUL SILK CULTURE.—Mr J W Long and Miss Olive Long, brother and sister of Halsey, Linn county have sent THE OREGONIAN six specimens of the perfect cocoon. They have been engaged in the business of silk culture during the past summer and have on hand about 5000 cocoons. The worms were fed on osage orange and thrived on this diet. A better climate for silk culture than Oregon affords would be hard to find. Some people may think that feeding silk worms and raising cocoons will do for pastime and cannot hurt any one but it may be these young people of Halsey are among the pioneers in what may develop into a great industry for this state

SEASIDERS THINNING OUT.—The steamer R R Thompson arrived at 8 40 last evening with about 200 seaside visitors leaving but few at the beach. Among those who came up were C H Prescott and family, Judge Stott and family, Judge Bellinger and family, E D McKee and family. Judge Smith remains at the Seaside house a day or two when he will go to Astoria to hold court for Judge Taylor while the latter goes to Alkali to hold a term there. The Seaside house will close on Friday. The smoke has closed out the seaside going and the next trip of the Thompson will bring home the longest stayers

THE ARSON CASE.—Yesterday Aaron F Elkeles, charged with arson by Ira F Powers appeared in the prisoner's dock at the police court. Examination was postponed until to-day. The prisoner has retained [illegible] and J S C Richardson and [illegible] to defend him. It is believed that the prosecution will present a very strong chain of circumstantial evidence, a great deal of which will come out at the preliminary examination. Elkeles's defense will be to prove an alibi. He claims that he went home from a dance between 1 30 and 2 30 and was asleep when the fire broke out

SERIOUS COLLISION.—Tuesday afternoon as freight train No [illegible] on the Oregon & California railroad was nearing Turner the engine ran into a small flat push car on which were loaded some steel rails. The pilot lifted the car and the rails jammed through the smoke arch just below the headlight. The train stopped in Salem and waited an extra engine to haul it to this city. The damaged end of the engine was patched up with boards and the machine run down to the shops right behind the passenger train

Y P A ELECTION.—At the semi annual meeting of the Young People's association of the Taylor street M E church the following officers were elected: President W Y Masters, vice president [illegible], secretary Miss [illegible], treasurer Miss Nellie Watkinds, [illegible], organist Miss Bailey. All reports showed the society to be in a healthy condition and brought out the fact that the six months just closed have been the most successful in its history

FELL THROUGH A WINDOW.—W A Mather of the Good Times restaurant on First street while standing on a step-ladder washing the inside of the windows at his place slipped and fell, the step-ladder crashing through the two side windows and he himself falling through the front window. Fortunately when he picked himself up he found that he had been more frightened than hurt, as he had escaped with some cuts on his two hands and wrists, severe but not dangerous

SMOKE ALONG THE COAST.—For the past week the smoke has hung rather thick along the Oregon coast extending several miles to sea. Any sort of a wind from the west will raise the smoke and drive it inland but unless we have rain soon the masters of sailing vessels due in the next three weeks will have some trouble to find the entrance to the Columbia river. There is a little comfort in the fact that the barometer is falling slightly, and a gentle southern breeze prevailed last night.

ANOTHER SAFE BLOWN OPEN.—The store of J K [illegible] at Independence, was broken into about 1 o'clock yesterday morning by burglars who attacked the safe with explosives and wrecked it. They went through the drawers which fortunately contained only a little coin. From reports in the past week it seems that a gang of professional safe crackers have been along both sides of the Willamette valley occasionally returning to Portland for ammunition and incidentally to ply their vocation

RETURN OF THE CIRCUS.—It is not yet too late for children anything to go to Robinson's circus to-morrow, provided they take their papas or mammas and they can get either parent at the [illegible] cents. The show will occupy the same lot it did on the previous visit here. The managers of the [illegible] and of the Sisters' Orphanage have accepted the invitation of Mr Robinson to bring the children of each institution in a body. To-night the show appears at Vancouver and on Saturday in East Portland

Davis will return to his old home in Roxbury, Mass and await the pleasure of the navy department

Besides his diploma Dr Bories has seven certificates from some of the most noted physicians of the country testifying that he has taken a special course in several branches and is a thoroughly competent physician and surgeon. His friends wish him a brilliant future

ORE ON EACH TRAIN.—Nearly every day, some one who does not read newspapers or who does forgets as fast as he reads, applies to THE OREGONIAN to know what days trains leave Corvallis for Yaquina bay. Here goes for the last time: Leave Corvallis Wednesdays and Saturdays 10 A M; leave Yaquina City Mondays and Fridays 8 A M

WHEAT RATES IN THE SHORT LINE.—To take effect August [illegible] and good until December [illegible] 1885 the Short Line invoked the rate to which it can haul wheat at 40c per 100 pounds from Huntington to Omaha, Council Bluffs, Kansas City and all Missouri river points and all points upon the Union Pacific railway in Kansas and Nebraska

CHARGED WITH PERJURY.—C Carman [illegible] was brought before Justice Greene yesterday on a charge of perjury. He waived examination. It is said that some time ago Carman had been a witness in a case involving his property and that he swore that he had assigned certain interest to one Frank Ireland. This it is claimed was false

BARN BURNED.—About noon Tuesday a large barn of A F Parker's farm in Marion county was totally destroyed by fire. His renter, W Bolter, lost 800 bushels of grain, fifteen tons of hay and all his harness and farming implements. A boy and a lucifer match were the origin of the fire. No insurance

TO SAN FRANCISCO.—Yesterday Judge Deady adjourned the United States circuit court without day and the district court until October. He left by the Columbia last night for San Francisco and will occupy the bench with Judge Lorenzo Sawyer. Judge Deady will be absent about a month

NEW FIRE ALARM BOX.—On the petition of property owners and tenants of the neighborhood the board of fire commissioners yesterday authorized the erection of a fire-alarm box at the corner of Front and Salmon. It will be placed in position as soon as possible

THE EAST SIDE

ASSESSMENT FOR 1885

City Assessor S Bullock has completed the assessment roll and delivered the same to the city recorder in whose hands it will remain for inspection for thirty days. The board of equalization consisting of the recorder assessor and the chairman of the committee on ways and means will meet for the purpose of equalizing the roll on the first Monday in October when all applications for corrections that have meantime been duly filed with the recorder will be considered. Footings will not be made until the corrections are completed but the roll indicates a considerable increase of values in the aggregate over the roll of last year. The roll appears to have been carefully compiled and values relatively affixed

THE POLICE BENEVOLENT FUND

The committee on judiciary recommended the passage of the ordinance providing a fund for sick and indigent policemen.

Councilman Gerdes said he did not believe the council had a right to compel a policeman to pay any part of his salary into any fund whatever. "Suppose," said the speaker, "a policeman pays every month for two years and is then dismissed from the force, does he get any benefit from the money he has paid in? Certainly not. It is unfair. Then suppose there should be another body of councilmen here next year who were opposed to such an ordinance as this, what would they do? They have a right to repeal it."

"Most assuredly so," replied Councilman Sears. "Well then," retorted Gerdes, "I would like to know who is to get all the money."

"Why, the democrats, to be sure," promptly responded Councilman Forbes.

"In that case," said Mr Gerdes, "I can have no possible objection to voting for the ordinance."

Councilman Fliedner thought the council had no right to force a benevolent association upon the police department.

Councilman Sears said he did not think the question of legality could ever be raised. It would be a good thing for the force. It was done elsewhere and was not in this coast by railroad companies and other corporations.

After some further debate the ordinance was referred back to the committee

CAPT HAIR SUSPENDED ONE MONTH

The committee on health and police who had investigated the charges made against Capt. Hair by J F Fry submitted the following report

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council of the City of Portland. Gentlemen: Your committee on health and police to whom was referred the charges against Capt J T Hair of the police force, have examined the witnesses produced before us and from the evidence introduced we find the following to be the facts in the case.

That on the [illegible] day of June 1885 Emma Fry the daughter of J F Fry was at the request of her father arrested at the Cambrinus gardens in this city and taken to the police station; that her father J F Fry was notified that she was there and that he went to the station to see and persuade her to go with him; that there was much talk between the father and daughter when they met at the police station in the presence of Capt J T Hair and other police officers; that the girl refused to go with her father saying that he had abused her and that she was afraid of him; when Capt Hair proposed to take her home with him and keep her at his house over night and return her to the station next morning; that Mr Fry objected to this and protested against Capt Hair taking her away from the station. Capt Hair then said he would take her with him and started out of the building, when Mr Fry attempted to stop him saying that no one should take his child away from him. Capt Hair then took hold of Mr Fry with some violence and pushed him back against the wall of the building out of his way saying to him at the same time: "If you don't behave yourself I will lock you up for disorderly conduct." Capt Hair then took the girl away from the station to his home where she remained with his family until next morning when she was brought back to the station. The chief of police and others notified Mr Fry that his daughter was at the station. He did not visit her and stated when so notified that he did not want anything more to do with the police. No complaint was made against the girl and in the afternoon she was released and left the station since which time she has lived part of the time in a dance house of [illegible] and part of the time at a lodging house so called. The girl is about 14 years of age and Mr Fry is about [illegible]0 years old [illegible] the worst calamity of his life.

We have no doubt but that Capt Hair in taking the girl home with him on the evening referred to was actuated by proper motives and supposed he was doing an act of kindness.

We are equally as well satisfied that he had no legal right to take the girl away from the station without her father's consent and that he was unnecessarily harsh toward the old gentleman in taking hold of him as he did and pushing him against the wall of the building and threatening to lock him up. He failed to pay that respect and show that forbearance which is always due to the aged and the infirm, especially when oppressed and undone by the worst of misfortunes.

It may be said for the benefit of policemen generally and of Capt Hair in particular, that the star and garb of a policeman are not to be treated as a shield from the condemnation which justly falls upon those guilty of wanton cruelty or harshness toward human beings however depraved or helpless; but rather as the insignia of that protection and security which as guardians of the peace and quiet of the city policemen should always inspire. They should be firm and unflinching in the discharge of their duties yet always kind and courteous to those appealing to them for information or assistance and never unnecessarily harsh or cruel toward even criminals under arrest or in their custody.

We recommend that the further consideration of the charges against Capt. Hair be indefinitely postponed.

Committee on Health and Police

As soon as the clerk had finished reading the above report Councilman Sears rose to speak upon the subject. He said: "There is something singular in the manner in which this report is worded. This man has been captain on the police force something less than two years during which time there have been charges preferred against him three times in the council, which have been investigated and every time he has been convicted. Less than three months after his appointment a respectable young man was assaulted, dragged through the streets and locked up without any sufficient cause. This case was investigated by a committee, I myself being a member of that committee. We made a similar report to the one made here to-night censuring Capt Hair for his conduct, and reading a lecture over his shoulder to the entire police force. Then another charge was made against him for violating a rule of the force in taking a valuable ring as a present from a degraded woman, who had been a prisoner in the jail. This was investigated and found to be true, still his dismissal was not recommended. Then came the Insley case, a still more grievous offense which went into the courts and resulted in a judgment for damages against Capt. Hair. But what capped the climax in this case was: He came before this council, and asked us to pay the amount of those damages for him. Now this case comes up. The charges are worse than any of the others that have been made against him. The committee report that he violated his duty and roughly treated an infirm old man, and then they proceed with the customary general lecture to the police force. I think this thing has gone far enough. The findings of the committee are sufficient proof of the truth of the charges. Some more severe measures ought to be taken than there has been in the past. So long as these things exist as they are I certainly cannot vote in favor of the adoption of the report."

Councilman Gerdes spoke in the same strain. He said: "This report is a very good work but it winds up badly. To say that the accused is guilty and then recommend that the charges against him be indefinitely postponed—these two things don't mix. I do not see how any councilman, after hearing the report read, can vote for what this committee recommends. I move that the report be referred back to the committee. This man should be discharged, or suspended or at least fined."

Councilman Gallagher—I move as an amendment until the verdict be received and the penalty be suspension from the force for six months.

Councilman Andrus—There is no use in returning this thing back to the committee. We have made a strong report. I think it harder than the evidence called for.

Councilman Forbes [illegible] some of the evidence in the investigation and the case [illegible] has not so bad [illegible] the [illegible] referred to.

Councilman Sears said he would second Mr Gallagher's motion but that he thought the time of suspension—six months—too long

Councilman Gallagher then modified his proposed penalty to a suspension for the period of thirty days. This motion was then [illegible] and carried by a vote of 6 to [illegible], Councilmen Farrell, Gallagher, Gerdes, Harbaugh, Holland and Sears voting in the affirmative and Councilmen Andrus, Fliedner and Forbes in the negative.

Councilman Holland in explaining his vote said that he could not understand [illegible] after having carefully listened to all the evidence that he was sought for would be [illegible]. It was shown that Captain Hair took the girl [illegible] against the will of her father but he [illegible] it was done in all kindness [illegible] the girl refused to go with her father and [illegible] there was no place to keep her at the jail.

A COMPROMISE WITH THE WHISKY MEN

Councilman Sears introduced a resolution authorizing the city attorney to dismiss the liquor cases now pending in the state circuit court upon the payment of $50 by each defendant. The councilman explained that there was no hope of getting these cases settled in the courts inside of twenty or thirty years and he thought if this compromise was made it might be accepted.

Councilman Forbes said this was a modest little request reducing the amount of fines due the city, in which case one-half and he should oppose it from the first

Councilman Gerdes said it was an old saying, to make the best of a bad bargain and he thought this compromise was the best thing the city could do

Councilman Farrell strongly opposed the resolution.

It was then put to a vote and carried by a vote of [illegible] to [illegible], Councilmen Farrell and Forbes alone voting in the negative

After the mayor announced the result Councilman Farrell quietly remarked: "I like to see a man vote on their own case and not good."

Authorizing a deed of the city's interest in lots [illegible] and [illegible] block [illegible] to the owner upon the payment of $108 [illegible], adopted

Councilman Gallagher called the attention of the chief of police to the condition of Tanner creek which he said was a menace to the health of that portion of the city. Adjourned.

Grant's Brightest Remark

Boston Globe

In all the bright sayings of Gen Grant which I have seen in print, his best has been omitted. After Sumner had criticised him so savagely, some one was talking to Grant about Sumnerism in New England, and remarked: "Even Sumner does not believe in the bible." "Why should he?" quietly replied Grant, "he didn't write it."

The Beauty of Woman

is her crown of glory. But alas how quickly does the nervous debility and chronic weakness of the sex cause the bloom of youth to pass away, sharpen the lovely features, and emaciate the rounded form! There is but one remedy which will restore the faded roses and bring back the grace of youth. It is Dr Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," a sovereign remedy for the diseases peculiar to females. It is one of the greatest boons ever conferred upon the human race, for it preserves that which is fairest and dearest to all mankind—the beauty and the health of woman

THE OREGON EXHIBIT CAR.

The Stop at Omaha—Interested Hundreds Visiting It—An Ovation Along the Line

From Omaha, under date of August 28, F W Allen writes to Chas. H Dodd, president state board of immigration, as follows

I arrived this morning all safe and the car is in splendid shape. The material came through admirably and the journey was an ovation to Oregon. The car was thronged at every station where we remained even a few minutes, most of those visiting being farmers, and they fairly deluge me with questions about the state. It was only in brief that I could reply and then give them a book. Upon arrival here the car was placed on a side track in a prominent part of the city and in less than an hour we had everything in shape for exhibition. From that hour to this, 9 P M, the car has been thronged with those anxious to get a peep at Oregon's wonders. It is perfectly wonderful to contemplate the interest in our state. Hundreds came in from the surrounding country for thanks to the state board the papers here had been duly notified of our arrival. I think if I should stop here a week the car would be crowded all the time. I have received the very best of attention from the O R & N company, the Oregon Short Line and Union Pacific people, and the latter assure me that they will do all they can for the car and will deliver all people desiring to emigrate to Oregon in that wonderland with promptness and dispatch. I go hence to Oskaloosa by the train Saturday morning on the Chicago Rock Island & Pacific road who people have kindly and generously extended the courtesies of their road

F W ALLEN

In the Omaha Daily Bee we find this notice of the car in that city

The Oregon car stands at the crossing of the lower Union Pacific tracks, nearly opposite Paxton & Gallagher's building. A stream of visitors has poured into the car during the day. Mr F W Allen the gentlemanly commissioner in charge, has arranged his display of products most tastefully and has a miniature Oregon on wheels in fact. Fine clusters of fruits, great bunches and bags of grain, curious freaks of vegetation, enormous sunflowers etc, etc. A splendid collection showing the agricultural and horticultural resources and products of Oregon. The U P baggage car is handsomely decorated on the inside, and placarded all over the outside setting forth the advantages of Oregon to homeseekers, and with information as to the best route to that great state. The exhibit is prepared by the Oregon immigration bureau, and the expenses of transportation etc, are borne by that body. The car leaves to-morrow morning on the Rock Island for Oskaloosa thence to Des Moines and on to the East.

A very appreciative audience greeted this talented elocutionist who is preceptress of Lewiston college in Vancouver last evening. The lady came to us highly recommended from Chicago and Boston and she met our highest expectations and proved herself a thorough master of her art. Her programme was composed of choice selections which showed off the lady's careful training to good advantage. She has a smooth and flexible voice and her modulation and intonation might be pronounced faultless. Her graceful manner upon the stage and masterly rendition of the programme throughout held her audience attentive listeners and every number was greeted with hearty applause

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

DARING TRAIN ROBBERY

KANSAS CITY Sept. 2.—A bold train robbery occurred on the Chicago & Alton railroad to-night but owing to the sudden flight of the robbers but little booty was secured. As the west bound train on the way to this city left Blue Springs twenty miles from here about 9 o'clock to-night, four masked men appeared at the smoking car and were about to board it. A number of men, however were standing on the platform and the robbers passed to the next car—the day car. Three of them climbed upon the forward platform, and the fourth got on at the rear. A man mounted guard at each end of the car while the other two entered and with drawn revolvers commanded the passengers to give up their money. A number of them handed out a small amount of change while one man, in his excitement, passed out his purse containing $3[illegible]. The robbers took whatever was offered without searching the passengers, and made no attempt to rob them of jewelry. When the pair had reached the middle of the car they became suddenly alarmed and pulling the bell rope the four robbers sprang off when the train slackened speed and disappeared in the darkness. The train passed on, and Conductor James Boggs reported the affair to officials of the road from the next telegraph station. The train then proceeded on its way to this city

The robbers are described as appearing awkward and nervous and evidently unused to such work. They were roughly dressed and looked like farm hands. Blue Springs is a small station in a thickly wooded district situated near Glendale and Blue Cut, scenes of former robberies in the days of the James gang. The train which was due here at [illegible] 30 P M was nearly an hour late and on its arrival preparations were made to send a special train from here with a posse to search for the miscreants. Every effort will be made to apprehend the robbers who started northward from the railroad. A posse from town was soon in pursuit. Men were seen about the station before the train arrived. One was dressed in a brown coat, black pantaloons, a [illegible] hat and had black hair and mustache. His weight is about 150 pounds. The other men were not noticed closely enough for a description to be obtained

A MISSOURI TRAGEDY

ST LOUIS Sept 2.—The Globe Democrat has advices that the little town of Kirkwood, twelve miles west of here on the Missouri Pacific railroad, was the scene of a bloody tragedy this afternoon. It appears that Mrs Randall, a highly respected lady of the place, had sent a trunk to the blacksmith shop of F W Bauchet, to have a key made for it. Early in the afternoon the lady called for the trunk and while she was at the shop Bauchet, an unmarried man of 50 years endeavored to impress her with the idea that he was greatly smitten with her. Mrs Randall received these advances coldly whereupon Bauchet became angry, and seizing a carbine which was in the shop, fired at and shot the lady in one of her lower limbs. Bauchet then marched up and down the street with his carbine and dirk knife and defied arrest. Sheriff Allen was sent for and when he arrived called upon Bauchet to surrender but that individual, who was now in a state of high excitement, refused and opened fire on the officer. The sheriff returned the fire and shot Bauchet twice, once in the head and once in the groin inflicting wounds from the effects of which he died this evening.

Mrs Randall who has a painful but not very serious wound, was conveyed to her home, and the sheriff offered to surrender to the local authorities but at last accounts he had not been arrested. Citizens generally concede that he only performed his official duty

FREIGHTS.—The market is without new interest.

CALLAO, Aug 1.—Messrs. Grace Bros. & Co. report: Freights have continued to weaken during the month and are now quotable as follows: Nitrate in handy vessels 27s 6d f. o. U. K. 32s 6d for continent with declining tendency. No business offering for U. S. and no wheat freights offering. The resumption of guano shipments is daily expected and should effect a considerable improvement in rates.

WHEAT.—Foreign markets dull, but wet weather in England lends a better tone to reports. Chicago and New York are somewhat higher. The local market rules dull, as holders are slow to sell and buyers as a rule will not pay full prices.

OATS.—Market less firm and 34½c has been accepted for good feed. Appearances indicate that 35c is best attainable price for choice. Shippers are doing less.

PROVISIONS.—Supplies continue free: recent arrivals including some choice local. Most dealers have worked off the greater part of their surplus of defective meats and stocks look better for it. Eastern is in fair receipt. Values show no important change, but the market wears a slightly improved front. Lard rules dull with stocks heavy. We quote local jobbing prices for ordinary parcels: City cured hams 10@11c, bacon 8½c, shoulders 7@8c; country cured generally ½@1c less; eastern hams, choice, 13½@14c, breakfast bacon 12½c. Lard, dull. Quote best eastern tins 10@10¼c, best local in pails 10@10½c, common 8c.

DRIED FRUITS.—Stocks show no appreciable lessening and trade fails to improve. Quote jobbing values for ordinary parcels: Sun-dried apples and pears, 3½@5c, factory do, 4@8c; prunes, 8@10c; sun-dried plums 4@5c, factory do, 6@8c; best new peaches 8½c; raisins $1 75@2 per full box.

HIDES, ETC.—Receipts only fair. Dry hides show new firmness east, and San Francisco advanced ½ cent. Here there is a steady business done at about old prices for all. We quote tallow 4@4½c, dry hides 16@17c, wet salted 5½@6c. Furs and skins quoted: Dark beaver $1 5[illegible]@1 75, valley summer deerskins 20@25c, valley winter 15@20c, eastern Oregon summer deerskins 15@20c, do winter 1[illegible]@15c, elk skins 8c per lb. The following sell by the skin: Black bear $1@6, brown do 50c@$5, dark fisher $2 50@5, pale do 50c@$1, silver fox $5@25, cross do $2@5, red do 50c@$1 50, lynx 37½@50c, prime dark marten 25@75c, dark mink 10@40c, land otter $1 50@5 50, wolf 37½@50c, wolverine 50c@$1 50.

CHICKENS.—Quote old $[illegible]@[illegible], young $1 50@2 50. Fancy have done better, but the market is weak.

EGGS.—In demand at [illegible]c.

HOPS.—Receipts lately noted were of parcels coming from the Sound for direct shipment. Regarding the crop there is nothing new to report. Fresh statements have been made to the effect that many yards would go unpicked, but these cannot be accepted as wholly true at this time. The Transcontinental Association announce a reduction in the freight rate to the east, [illegible], which is an important matter to the coast grower. New York mail dates report: "With crop prospects favorable for a liberal supply both at home and abroad consumers remain indifferent and continue to purchase only to meet current wants. Prices are irregular and barely steady, with 10c the best bid for new crop. For 1884 the prices range from [illegible] to [illegible] cents for best grades." A San Francisco report says: "It would be difficult to imagine a more discouraging state of affairs than that now confronting all who are in any way interested in this product. It is very patent from the reluctance of brewers that a large surplus of old hops will be carried forward into the new season to add to the embarrassment of a yield which alone promises to be far beyond all probable requirements. All things in fact seem to have conspired to make this as unprofitable a year as possible to growers, and those who were induced by the fancy prices of two years ago to invest in larger yards will have further occasion to rue their rashness. Dealers as a rule will not make advances, and it is quite probable that many yards will be left unpicked. Choice Sonoma are offered for September delivery at 10c, but there are no buyers who are [illegible] and [illegible] show [illegible] give that."

WOOL.—Receipts for the week 14,1[illegible] lbs including [illegible] lbs valley against [illegible] lbs last week and [illegible] for the week ending September [illegible] last year. Since March [illegible] receipts have been [illegible] lbs valley and [illegible] lbs eastern [illegible]. Eastward shipments during August were 9,4[illegible] lbs. The local market is firm [illegible] light business, few parcels offering directly, as most holders think they can do better by shipping or holding their product. The general condition of affairs at the east is such as to warrant confidence in steady values at least. Advances will be difficult to establish except in very desirable grades. The local quotation is largely nominal at 12@17c for eastern Oregon, 11@16c for valley and 15@17c for Umpqua. What a really fine parcel would do is difficult to say. San Francisco is without stocks of choice, and recent transactions there have been in the heavy grades. New York mail dates report: "The demand for this staple has continued moderately active with the tone of the market strong, though values show no material advance. Consumers are apparently well satisfied that the general condition of affairs is of such a character as to warrant the prevailing belief that manufacturers will [illegible] up at current rates [illegible] the [illegible] of holders are disposed [illegible] supplies into consumptive channels by accepting very narrow margins of profit on their investments. Contrary to general expectation the activity in the Boston market has shown no abatement, the total transactions during the week ending Saturday last aggregating 4,[illegible]6,100 pounds. Prices [illegible] with an upward tendency [illegible] continued liberal receipts [illegible] to establish more than a fractional [illegible] wools are [illegible] for [illegible] XX and [illegible] Michigan X have sold at [illegible] holders [illegible] Delaine [illegible] show considerable [illegible]."

The Merchandise Market.

The San Francisco Commercial [illegible] summary for last week says: In this market the changes for the past week have been, as a rule, [illegible] important. Grocers show an advance while lard is lower. Fresh meats are steady, except hogs, which are [illegible]. The only changes reported in groceries are [illegible] for mixed and Hawaiian [illegible]. The arrival of the bark Willard Mudgett from Hong Kong added largely to the stock of Chinese [illegible] and caused the decline. There is no change of importance in the market for salmon. Good [illegible] catch of 1885 is steadily held at rates quoted for some weeks past. The catch of 1884 is nominal and buyers are able to make pretty much their own terms. The demand for canned fruits and other canned goods is now reported moderately active, but prices rule low. Excepting in pie fruit no changes have been made in the quotations. The last Hong Kong steamer brought a small consignment of Java coffee which reached a market entirely bare, the lot being been sold at 18½c. Central American grades are steady.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Governments dull and strong. The stock market is drifting into dull and unsatisfactory condition both to bulls and bears. Prices are being manipulated to a certain extent and outsiders show a disposition to stand off and await developments. Rumors were current this afternoon of the formation of a strong bear combination. The market at the opening this morning was somewhat irregular, although a majority of the list was lower and in early dealings there was a further decline, ranging from ¼ to ¾ per cent., although Omaha preferred yielded 1 and Minnesota & St. Louis preferred [illegible] per cent. on very light transactions. Later there was a [illegible] otherwise featureless upward movement with only slight reactions as a rule, and in many cases the highest quotations were made shortly before 2 o'clock, the market then becoming steady and so continuing to the close. In other cases however final prices are the highest of the day. The result of operations is a gain of 1¼ for Northwestern preferred and ¾ for common and ¾ for St. Paul.

The Mail and Express says: There was no feature in mining shares, with the exception of a flurry in Horn Silver. Sales were: State Line [illegible] @ 0.102, Horn Silver 200 @ 1 [illegible], Ontario 25, Bulwer 40, Amie 6, Oriental and Miller 11.

An Excellent Remedy

In all cases of Bronchial and Pulmonary Affections is AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. As such it is recognized and prescribed by the medical profession, and in many thousands of families, for the past forty years, it has been regarded as an invaluable household remedy. It is a preparation that only requires to be taken in very small quantities, and a few doses of it administered in the early stages of a cold or cough will effect a speedy cure, and may, very possibly, save life. There is no doubt whatever that

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has preserved the lives of great numbers of persons, by arresting the development of Laryngitis, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, and Pulmonary Consumption, and by the cure of those dangerous maladies. It should be kept ready for use in every family where there are children, as it is a medicine far superior to all others in the treatment of Croup, the alleviation of Whooping Cough, and the cure of Colds and Influenza, ailments peculiarly incidental to childhood and youth. Promptitude in dealing with all diseases of this class is of the utmost importance. The loss of a single day may, in many cases, entail fatal consequences. Do not waste precious time in experimenting with medicines of doubtful efficacy, while the malady is constantly gaining a deeper hold, but take at once the speediest and most certain to cure,

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
